

I strongly disagree with any attempts to weaken Wisconsin's Do Not Call List. Ever since our its implementation and our signing up for it, our home has been peaceful in the evenings. I resent sales calls coming to my house and wish to keep the current policy in place.